

Are you looking for some free MS Powerpoint training? Microsoft has a good library of Powerpoint training materials which are free to use on their web site.

Training materials are available in a variety of formats – mainly HTML and as short videos. Topics covered include:

- Introduction to Powerpoint
- Slides and layouts
- Text and tables
- Pictures and graphics
- Presenting slideshows
- Animation, video and audio
- Sharing and co-authoring
- Using 3D models
- Importing 3D models

Microsoft also provides a large library of free Powerpoint templates which are available for download to meet many different business needs.

Powerpoint 2013 Training

Microsoft also offers free training for the Powerpoint 2013 desktop applications on both Windows and MacOS. This training covers essential topics for beginners, intermediate and advanced Powerpoint users.

Many of the training videos which are available on the Microsoft site also come with transcripts to accompany the videos. This means you can read the instructions later if you don't want to watch the video.

Microsoft Office

Microsoft Powerpoint is one of the core applications which forms part of the MS Office suite. Office is available both as a set of desktop applications and web-based applications. Not all Office applications come in both desktop and web versions, but Powerpoint does. Microsoft Powerpoint is a core part of Office 365, the SaaS office productivity suite.

Microsoft also provides MS Office training for free for all its other Office products.
